Ritchie McKay hit the ground running once he arrived on Liberty Mountain, quickly assembling a 2008 recruiting class that Basketball Times ranked at No. 48 on its Top 50 list. Liberty joined eight other schools which are not a part of a BCS football power conference.

Liberty marks McKay's fifth head coaching stint, and his first east of the Mississippi, after stops in the Big Sky, Mountain West, Pac-10 and WAC conferences. With the experience and success that McKay brought with him to Liberty, the true nature of how special his first Liberty recruiting class can be, is reflected in the national recognition it's received prior to the sextet's arrival on campus.

With his recruiting accolades aside, McKay's inaugural season at Liberty was one of improvements. McKay guided the Flames to their first non-losing season in four years, setting three-point shooting records along the way. McKay's squad had a penchant for hitting the trey, setting Liberty records in three-point field goals (288) and attempts (772), while finishing the year with the third-best success rate (37.3 percent) in school history.

Under McKay's tutelage, an already talented Anthony Smith reached new heights. As a junior, Smith was the only player in the nation during the 2008 season to attempt at least 200 three-point field goals and succeed on at least 50 percent of his field goal attempts (51.5) and 40 percent of his three-point field goal attempts (41.0).

Under McKay's guidance, TeeJay Bannister finished the season ranked No. 3 in the nation in assists (224 assists). Bannister's assist mark is a Liberty Division I record, the second-best mark overall in the Liberty annals, serves as the second-best mark in Big South history. Bannister became only the fifth player in conference history to reach the 200-assist plateau in a season.

McKay oversaw a successful campaign from forward Alex McLean as well. McLean was named to the Big South All-Conference first team. The honor marked the sixth-straight year, Liberty has placed a player on the first team, tying the second-best streak in conference history. The streak also serves as the longest current streak among conference teams.

McKay earned his bachelor of arts degree in athletic administration from Seattle Pacific in 1987. A stellar player for the Falcons, McKay left the program as the school's single-season and career record holder for steals, and he was third in career assists. He still holds the school record with 10 steals in a 1987 game against Pacific Lutheran.

McKay is married to the former Julie Summers. The couple resides in Forest, Va., with their two sons, Luke (9) and Gabriel (7) and a daughter, Ellie (12).

Recent Results

The Liberty Flames secured its second-ever victory over an ACC opponent when they topped the Virginia Cavaliers, 86-82, on Tuesday night at John Paul Jones Arena. Liberty's other victory over an ACC opponent was also against Virginia, 69-64, on Jan. 7, 1998, at the old University Hall.

Liberty's win over Virginia snapped the Cavaliers 36-game November home winning streak, which dated back to 1994. The win also snapped Virginia's 16-game winning streak against Big South opponents, which dates back to Liberty's last win over the Cavaliers in 1998. The win also snapped Virginia's 15-game winning streak against non-conference in-state opponents, which dated back to 2002.

Seth Curry and Kyle Ohman led Liberty with 26 points, while Anthony Smith chipped in 21 markers. The performance by the trio marked the first time three players have scored 20 against Virginia in the same game since Juan Dixon (23), Chris Wilcox (21) and Lonny Baxter (20) did so for Maryland on March 3, 2002.

Ohman Ties a John Paul Jones Arena Record

Kyle Ohman scored 17-first half points, tying a John Paul Jones Arena record for first half points. Ohman shares the record with North Carolina's Tyler Hansbrough and Hampton's Vincent Simpson.

Curry Joins Elite Liberty Circle

Freshman Seth Curry became the fourth Liberty freshman, and the third since the Flames moved to Division I, to reach the 20-point plateau in their collegiate debut when he tallied 23 markers against Montreat on Nov. 14.

The first Liberty freshman to accomplish the feat was Willard De-Shazor, who poured in 29 points against Tennessee Temple on Nov. 28, 1973. Chris Toomer scored 21 points against Maine on Nov. 23, 1990 in his first collegiate game. Jay Boykin was the last Liberty freshman, until Curry, to reach 20 points in his collegiate debut. He scored 20 points against Drake on Nov. 24, 1995, when Curry was five years old.

The previous three members of this exclusive Liberty club played all four years at Liberty, but Deshazor was the only player to reach the 1,000-point club (1,569). Toomer is next with 583 career points.

Overtime Drought

Liberty has played 74 overtime-free games since the Flames last ended regulation of a contest tied. The last time Liberty played in an overtime game was on Feb. 6, 2006, against UNC Asheville inside the Vines Center. Liberty eventually dropped the game, 83-81.

The streak serves as the second-longest in program history and the longest during Liberty's Division I era. The longest Liberty streak without an overtime contest is 134 games from Dec. 8, 1972 until Dec. 9, 1977. Liberty is 18-29 all-time in overtime games.

Winning a Season Opener

With a 97-77 victory over Montreat on Nov. 14, the Flames secured their first win in a season opener since Nov. 17, 2000, when Liberty defeated Tusculum, 84-58, inside the Vines Center. Liberty is now 19-18 all-time in season openers.

Curry Ties Vines Center Record in Debut

Curry's seven steals against Montreat on Nov. 14 tied a Vines Center record that was originally set by Delawn Grandison on Jan. 7, 1999 against Tusculum and was last achieved by Maurice Watkins on Jan. 15, 2001 against Charleston Southern. Curry became one of seven players to record seven steals inside Liberty's home.

McKay Starts Strong

Ritchie McKay is now 10-3 as a head coach in season openers. He started a new winning streak after his previous streak of four-straight triumphs was snapped last year by San Diego State. Liberty fell to San Diego State, 62-50, at Fresno State's World Vision Classic on Nov. 9, 2007. McKay previous loss in a season opener came in his inaugural game as the head coach at New Mexico, falling 76-68, at the hands of the Cal Golden Bears on Nov. 23, 2002. McKay also dropped his very first game as a collegiate head coach at Portland State, falling at Mississippi, 56-54, in 1996.

Flames Facing New Foes This Year

Liberty has the potential to face eight opponents the Flames have never previously met. Liberty's non-conference schedule pits the Flames against Anderson, DePaul, Northern Colorado and Saint Louis. Due to Liberty's Thanksgiving Classic, the Findlay Toyota Las Vegas Classic and the ESPNU BracketBuster, an additional three opponents could join the list. Those possible opponents are South Carolina State, Southern, USC Upstate and whoever the Flames draw in the ESPNU BracketBuster (opponent will be announced in February).

The Curry/Lynchburg Connection

Freshman Seth Curry isn't the only member of his family to appear in a college game on the Liberty campus. Seth's father, Dell Curry, as a freshman, poured in a game-high 19 points, on 7-of-13 shooting, for Virginia Tech on Dec. 7, 1982, in the Hokies' 71-53 triumph over the Flames.

The game featured two fathers of 2008 All-Americans. Dell's older son Stephen is an All-American performer at Davidson, while the Flames' Eric Gordon saw his son, Eric Gordon, Jr. picked in the first round of the NBA Draft by the Los Angeles Clippers after an All-American season at Indiana. Liberty's Gordon, scored six points and dished out two assists against Curry's Virginia Tech squad that cold December night in 1982.

Smith is a Preseason Mid-Major All-American

Senior Anthony Smith was named by CollegeInsider.com to its Preseason Mid-Major All-American list. Smith was the only player from the Big South Conference on the list and became only the second Liberty Flame to garner such preseason accolades from the prestigious website. Former Liberty standout Larry Blair made the list prior to the 2006-07 campaign.

My Brother is an All-American

Freshmen Seth Curry and Jesse Sanders each are younger siblings of All-Americans from last season. Curry's older brother Stephen is currently an All-American performer at Davidson, nearly lifting the Wildcats to the 2008 Final Four. Sanders' older brother Thomas earned All-American honors at Gardner-Webb after being named 2008 Atlantic Sun Player of the Year. The elder Sanders poured in 21 points and pulled down 10 rebounds in the Bulldogs' 84-68 upset win at No. 20 Kentucky on Nov. 8, 2007.

Next on the Scoring List for Anthony Smith

With 1,198 career points, Anthony Smith sits in 15th place all-time in the Liberty annals for scoring. On Nov. 14, Smith passed Eric Gordon (1,154), on Liberty's career scoring list.

Gordon was a three-year letterwinner from 1982-84 and is the father of former Indiana All-American and the Los Angeles Clippers' 2008 first-round draft pick, Eric Gordon.

Next up is Greg McCauley (1,228), a four-year letterwinner from 1981-85. Smith needs 31 points to pass McCauley for 14th place.

Smith Starts Slow From Beyond the Arc

Anthony Smith is currently shooting 27.8 percent (5-of-18) from beyond the arc through the season's first three games. This is nothing new for Smith, as the Plano, Texas native shot 27.3 percent (9-of-33) from three-point range through the first six games of last season. Smith heated up in game seven against Longwood on Nov. 27, 2007, connecting on 7-of-8 from three-point land, jump-starting him to finish the final 26 games connecting on 43.6 percent (75-of-172) of his shots. Smith finished the year connecting on 41.0 percent (84-of-205) of his attempts, giving him the fifth-best success rate for a season in program history. The 84 three-point field goals and 205 three-point attempts were program bests.

Smith is Preseason Big South Preseason Player of the Year

Senior Anthony Smith was tabbed by the coaches and media as the Big South Preseason Player of the Year. It marks the first time the Liberty men's program has been recognized with the honor.

November Record

Overall, Liberty has posted a 71-69 record in November, including a 48-15 ledger at home, 11-39 record on the road and a 12-15 mark at a neutral location. Since the 2000-01 season, Ritchie McKay has a 25-12 record in the 11th month of the year.

Smith Can Shoot

Senior Anthony Smith was the only player in the nation in 2008 to attempt at least 200 three-point field goals and succeed on at least 40 percent of his three-point field goal attempts (41.0), while also connecting on 50 percent of his field goal attempts (51.5).

He was one of five players in the nation to accomplish the same feat, while attempting at least 100 three-point field goals. The other players were Mario Chalmers (Kansas), Lee Cummond (BYU), Malik Hairston (Oregon) and James Harden (Arizona State).

Road Woes

The Flames have lost 37 of their last 44 road games, dating back to the start of the 2005-06 season. Three of the wins during the span came during the 2006-07 season. A 66-63 victory at Charleston Southern on Jan. 22, 2007, a 118-108 victory at VMI on Feb. 21, 2007 and a 64-48 win at Radford on Feb. 24, 2007. The victory in Lexington was the Flames first since Dec. 7, 1991, and the win at Radford was Liberty's first since Feb. 22, 1997. The fourth road win was a 55-53 triumph at East Carolina on Nov. 17, 2007, the fifth road win was on Jan. 28, 2008 at VMI, 87-81 and the sixth was a 65-51 triumph at Coastal Carolina on Feb. 16, 2008. Liberty secured its seventh road victory during that span on Tuesday at Virginia, 86-82.

New Faces

Liberty returns 33.5 points of its 69.4 points per game from last season, and 56 percent of those points came from Liberty's lone returning starter, Anthony Smith (16.0 ppg). Included in the returning points per game number is three total points from Tyler Baker, who appeared in one game, before giving way to injury and James Spencer, a walk-on who tallied two total points. The final returnees, Kyle Ohman and Jeremy Anderson chipped in 7.7 ppg and 6.8 ppg, respectively.

Season Openers - Home

Nov. 14's season opener marked the first time Liberty has opened a season at home since Nov. 19, 2004, when the Flames hosted New Hampshire. Liberty dropped the 2004 contest in a heart-breaker, 59-58.

Liberty In Big South Openers

Nov. 18th at UNC Asheville marked the 18th Big South opener for the Flames. Liberty has a 4-14 all-time record in Big South openers into the contest. The Flames have opened a conference season against UNC Asheville now seven occasions, all resulting in Bulldog wins. UNCA is 3-0 inside the Vines Center and 4-0 inside the Justice Center against Liberty when opening Big South play. The Nov. 18th contest marked the third straight year the Flames have opened up conference play inside the Justice Center.

Liberty Picked to Finish Fourth in the Big South Conference

Liberty was tabbed to finish fourth in the preseason Big South Conference poll. Liberty received two first-place votes, as seven different schools received nods as a possible contender to be the league's top finisher. The preseason poll is voted on by the league's coaches and media.

The Flames finished in fourth place a season ago, giving Liberty its first non-losing season in four years. McKay enters his second Liberty season with the loss of four starters and a total of eight lettermen off last year's 16-16 squad. A Basketball Times Top 50 recruiting class, the first in Liberty or Big South history, could be a remedy for those losses.

Winthrop was picked to finish first, followed by a closely contested vote for second place. Radford nudged Big South newcomer Gardner-Webb by one point. High Point was picked to finish fifth behind Liberty, while Charleston Southern, VMI, Coastal Carolina, UNC Asheville and Presbyterian round out the remainder of the poll.

Game 1
Lynchburg, Va.

Seth Curry had a banner night, scoring 23 points and tying a Vines Center record with seven thefts as the Liberty Flames (1-0) defeated the Montreat Cavaliers (1-2), 97-77, in front of 5,198 raucous fans. The win marks the first season-opening win for the Flames since they topped Tusculum, 84-58, on Nov. 17, 2000, inside the Vines Center. Curry's seven steals tied a Vines Center record that was originally set by Delawn Grandison on Jan. 7, 1999 against Tusculum and was last achieved by Maurice Watkins on Jan. 15, 2001 against Charleston Southern. Curry becomes one of seven players to record seven steals inside Liberty's home edifice. The Flames sprinted out to a 15-3 lead when Brolin Floyd nailed a three-point bucket from the corner at 13:28. Making his first collegiate appearance, Curry scored Liberty's first five points and seven of the Flames' first 12 during the run. Montreat managed one field goal by Timmy Harper at the 17:53 mark, before being held without a field goal until the 10:18 mark, when Seth Moore tallied a bucket in the paint. By that time, Liberty had extended its advantage to 21-6. The Cavaliers were able to cut the deficit to 10 points, 34-24, via an 18-13 advantage, capped by a Vincent Dombrowski three-point bucket at 3:45. Liberty quickly extended the lead back to 15 points, 39-24, courtesy of five straight points by Floyd. A trey from the corner at 2:34 capped the mini surge. Liberty closed out the half on a 9-5 run, capped by an Anthony Smith bucket as the half expired. The Flames went into the break with a 48-29 lead. The Flames were led in the opening stanza with 14 points by Curry, followed by 10 points by Floyd. Liberty connected on 42.9 percent (18-of-42) from the floor and 33.3 percent (5-of-15) from beyond the arc. Montreat shot 33.3 percent (10-of-30) from the floor and 16.7 percent (2-of-12) from beyond the arc in the first period. The Cavaliers came out of the break on an 11-5 spurt, capped by a MJ Njoku bucket at the 16:25 mark, cutting the score to 55-40. Liberty then reeled off seven straight points, taking a 20-point advantage, 60-40, after two free throws by Kyle Ohman at 15:36. The difference between the teams did not change much the rest of the contest, as Liberty finished with the 20-point win, 97-77. The Flames finished the night connecting on 47.8 percent (33-of-69) from the floor and 46.2 percent (12-of-26) from three-point range. Montreat tallied a 40.6 percent (28-of-69) success rate from the field and 25 percent (7-of-28) from beyond the arc. Smith led the Flames with 25 points on 10-of-15 shooting, while moving into 15th place on Liberty's all-time scoring list, passing Eric Gordon (1,154). Smith pulled down a team-high nine rebounds in the victory. Floyd added 15 points and Ohman chipped in 14 points, as every player who appeared for the Flames tallied at least two points.

Game 2
Asheville, N.C.

The Liberty Flames (1-1, 0-1 BSC) dropped their Big South Conference opener for the third straight year at UNC Asheville (3-0, 1-0), as the Bulldogs recorded an 84-56 victory, inside the Justice Center. The Bulldogs opened up the contest quickly, staking themselves to a 7-0 advantage, courtesy of a Reid Augst bucket at 16:50. The Flames finally got on the board at the 16:10 mark on a Seth Curry jumper from the wing. Over the next eight minutes, UNC Asheville extended its lead to 24-10, via a 17-8 spurt, including nine straight Bulldog points. Quinard Jackson finished off the run with a bucket at 8:35. Liberty trailed by as many as 21 points during the first half, 46-25, when John Williams banked a shot in with 41 seconds remaining in the stanza. Curry finished off the half with five straight points, versus the Bulldogs two points, sending the Flames into the break trailing 19 points, 49-30. The Bulldogs didn't slow down entering the second half, extending their lead to 27 points, 64-37, via a 15-7 jaunt, capped by two free throws from J.P. Primm at the 12:17 mark. The two teams played nearly even basketball over the final 12 minutes of the game, as UNC Asheville outgained Liberty by a point, 20-19, during the remainder of the game to seal the victory. Liberty struggled from the field on the afternoon, connecting on 31.7 percent (19-of-60) from the floor. The Flames shooting percentage from beyond the arc was not much better, as Liberty only hit 21.4 percent (6-of-28) from three-point range, including being shutout from long range in the second half. UNC Asheville looked sharp in the opening Big South game of the year, hitting 49.2 percent (29-of-59) from the floor and 52.9 percent (9-of-17) from beyond the arc. Curry led Liberty with 18 points and pulled down six rebounds. Anthony Smith chipped in 13 points and four rebounds in the losing cause.

Game 3
Charlottesville, Va.

Seth Curry and Kyle Ohman each tallied a career-high 26 points, helping the Liberty Flames (2-1, 0-1 BSC) defeat the Virginia Cavaliers (3-1, 0-0 ACC), 86-82, inside John Paul Jones Arena. The Flames jumped out to an early 10-2 lead, courtesy of eight straight Ohman points, including two three-point buckets. Curry capped the run with a jumper from the left elbow at 15:35. Virginia cut the deficit to four points, 13-9, via a 7-3 spurt, capped by Jerome Meyinsse's rebound and put back at 12:10. Liberty extended its lead back up to eight points, 17-9, when Curry hit a lay-up at 10:34. Curry scored four straight points, with his second field goal of the spurt coming at 4:21, but that was all the offense Liberty could muster during a 17-4 Virginia run. The Cavaliers capped the run on a Sylvan Landesburg bucket at 3:20, charging to the 26-22 advantage. Liberty made a final push to close out the half with an advantage, retaking the lead, 35-32, via a 13-6 run. During Liberty's run Ohman hit his fifth and sixth three-point buckets of the opening stanza, while Anthony Smith tallied two lay-ups. The Flames were able to enter the intermission with the three-point lead, courtesy of Curry's contested trey as time expired. The second half started out neck-and-neck, with Virginia taking a brief one-point lead, 41-40, after a Landesburg free throw at 17:16. Liberty retook the lead, 43-41, when Smith tallied a trey from the wing at 16:15. A Calvin Baker trey at 15:55 gave the Cavaliers another one point lead, 44-43. The Flames then scored five-straight points to take a four-point advantage, 48-44. Curry connected on a trey from the wing and Smith tallied a bucket in the paint at 15:01. Two Smith free throws and Curry's fourth trey of the game at 12:33 gave the Flames another four-point lead, 53-49, coming after Sammy Zeglinski tallied four-straight markers for the Cavaliers. Back-to-back three-point buckets by Zeglinski gave the Cavaliers the 59-57 advantage at 10:05. Liberty then went on an 8-0 run to grab a six-point lead, 65-59. Johnny Stephene hit a three-point bucket from the corner at 7:55 to cap the run. The Cavaliers and Flames battled back and forth, as Virginia managed to cut Liberty's lead down to one point on four separate occasions. However, the Flames remained steadfast, going 8-of-11 from the charity stripe in the closing two minutes of action to hold on for the victory. Ohman tallied a career-high 26 points on 9-of-12, including 6-of-8 from three-point land. Curry matched Ohman's career night with 26 points of his own on 9-of-17 shooting from the floor, including 4-of-8 from three-point land. Smith chipped in 21 point on 8-of-14 shooting, while dishing out six assists. Jesse Sanders led point, dishing out a career-high eight assists.
